Academic Deposit
Pay Your Academic Deposit

The deposit is required of all first time freshmen and transfer students. Payment is due by December 1 for students entering in the spring and by May 1 for students entering in the fall. Although WVU offers a rolling admission, the academic deposit is required to proceed with housing selection and New Student Orientation registration. Payments made after the due date are nonrefundable.

Housing
Housing Information

Within 48 hours after the academic deposit requirement has been satisfied, the online housing application and deposit can be completed. Please note that submission of the housing application and deposit is only the first step in obtaining a residence hall room. After the housing application has been processed, students will be assigned a timeslot to access the online housing system and select a space in a room and/or roommate. Assignments of timeslots are based upon the date the housing application and deposit are received. A message with the timeslot assignment is sent to MyHousing and the MIX account. Rooms are filled on a first-come, first-served basis, and housing preferences cannot be guaranteed.

The only Admit portal view that has the Academic Deposit link is WVU Undergraduate. Any of the other Admit views (Graduate, Professional, etc.) must use the STAR link to go to Self-Service Banner (SSB).
